Overview

The WildHearts Global Youth Summit will provide parents, carers and young people with opportunities to learn about Climate Change and how as a family you can play your part in making the world a more fairer, sustainable place. The event will take place during the 26th UN Climate Change Conference of the Parties (COP26) in Glasgow (1st-5th Nov).

There are lots of ways for you and your family to get involved. Please see below:

WildHearts Global Youth Summit Virtual Opening Ceremony [Family Activity]

The virtual Opening Ceremony will take place on the evening of Monday 1st November, 6.30pm - 7.30pm BST. Join other parents and students from around the world and hear from global thought leaders sharing their passion and practical advice about Climate Change.

Pre-recorded Sustainability Workshops [Youth Activity]

These 30-minute interactive workshops, delivered by global sustainability champions from some of the world's leading brands, are designed to inspire and empower young people on how they can take action on climate change.

Careers With Purpose Video Podcasts [Youth Activity]

These 20-minute podcasts show what careers with purpose look like and how young people can pursue them. They will receive insights from senior leaders from the leading companies below, about how they are addressing societal and environmental challenges, locally and globally, through their job roles.

Sustainability Lesson Plans [Family Activity]

A great way to bring to life the topic of Sustainability with these interactive lesson plans. Some of the themes include Sustainable Food, Sustainable Recycling and Packaging and how you as a family can play your part in tackling these.

WildHearts Global Youth Summit Virtual Closing Ceremony [Family Activity]

The virtual Closing Ceremony will take place on Friday 5th November, 1.30pm - 2.30pm BST. This interactive event is a call to action on how young people and their families can play their part in making the world a more fairer, sustainable place.
